Business Email

Business Class email service provides enterprise-grade communications using POP3 service. Your email addresses can be set up with a Time Warner Cable Business Class domain or with your company-owned domain name.

Our business email service allows a higher sending limit so you can send your company's newsletters, order confirmations, and other important business communications without worrying about surpassing your daily quota. Set up automatic forwarding and aliasing to ensure that your customers can reach the right person anytime.

- ✓ Get webmail access, a block of 10 email addresses and mailboxes and 10GB of storage per block.
- ✓ Purchase additional blocks of mailboxes and storage capacity as needed.
- ✓ Server-level virus scanning helps prevent harmful viruses and malware from reaching your company's network and equipment.
- ✓ Set automatic reply options and configure multiple entry names for a single mailbox.

Small Business Spotlight

We're constantly inspired by our small business customers and their anything-but-small aspirations.

#TWCBCSmallBiz

In late April, we set out to find out more about the people behind those big aspirations. What drives them. What their challenges are. What keeps them successful. And how we can help. Two weeks and hundreds of questions later, we got to know four very cool and unique small businesses pretty well. And over the next few months, you will too. Watch their stories unfold here.
